THE UNITED LABOR PARTY

PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONVENTION AT SYRACUSE, N. Y.

The Fight Against the Socialist Still the Leading Feature of the Meeting—The Platform as Reported by a Majority of the Committee and Adopted.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Aug. 20.—The convention of the United Labor party, which adjourned last evening until 10 o'clock to-day, did not assemble until an hour later. Speaking of the fight against the Socialists, young Walter Voorman, one of their leaders, said to a United Press representative on entering the hall:

"We have been making friends every hour, and delegates who were against us before are coming over to our side now. Among the trades unionists the disaffection is particularly strong. George made a tremendous mistake by antagonizing them, as he did by insisting upon the selection of Mc-Mackin for permanent chairman. He should have allowed the honor to go to O'Donnell.
That would have gone a long way toward calming the opposition to him in the party.
But as the result of his high-handed course in the matter, as well as in other cases, the feeling has been greatly intensified, and there is good reason to believe the disaffected elements in the United Labor party will join with the Socialists in issuing a call for another convention. The George men can make up their minds that the end is not yet and that the war which they have begun will be carried on with as much spirit on our side as on theirs."

The first business of the day was the admission of P. P. McKerrick, of Rochester, and Edward Murphy, of New York, two belated delegates. W. P. Rogers moved that Socialistic delegates from districts outside New York be declared eligible, but Chairman McMackin ruled the motion out of order. P. J. Kelly, of New York, moved that in making up the state committee no man be chosen to represent any congressional district in which he does not live.
Explaining, he said that committeemen so chosen should be persons capable of doing proselyting work in the respective districts. That should be done only by residents. One man came here yesterday only to find that his seat had been given to another.

"To whom? Name him," shouted a score of delegates with one voice.

Henry George, Jr., answered Mr. Kelly.
W. T. Crossdale, chairman of the committee on credentials, declared that young George had been duly elected and that his title to a seat had been properly passed upon.

Jeremiah Murphy informed the convention that he was the person who raised the objection against Henry George, Jr. He had done so because he had not understood the matter.

After further discussion the matter was dropped.

The majority of the committee on Platform reported the following platform:

"We, the delegates of the United Labor party of New York, in state convention assembled, hereby reassert, as the fundamental platform of the party and the basis on which we ask the co-operation of citizens of other states, the following declaration of principles, adopted on September 23, 1886, by the convention of Trade and Labor association of the city of New York, that resulted in the formation of the United Labor party.

"Holding that the corruptions of government and the impoverishment of labor result from neglect of the self-evident truths proclaimed by the founders of this republic that all men are created equal and are endowed by their creator with unalienable rights, we aim at the abolition of the system which compels men to pay their fellow creatures for the use of God's gifts to all, and permits monopolizers to deprive labor of natural opportunities for employment, thus filling the land with tramps and paupers, and bringing about an unnatural competition which tends to reduce wages to starvation rates, and to make the wealth producer the industrial slave of those who grow rich by his toil.

"Holding, moreover, that the advantages arising from growth and improvement belong to society at large, we aim at the abolition of the system which makes such beneficial inventions as the railroads and telegraph a means for the oppression of the people, and the aggrandizement of an aristocracy of wealth and power. We declare the true purpose of government to be the maintenance of that sacred right of property which gives to everyone opportunity to employ his labor and security, that he shall enjoy its fruits; to prevent the strong from oppressing the weak and the unscrupulous from robbing the honest; and to do for the better benefit of all such things as can be better done by organized society than by individuals, and we aim at the abolition of all laws which give to any class of citizens, either judicial, financial, industrial or political, that are not equally shared by all others.

"We call upon all who seek the emancipa-tion of labor, and who would make the American union and its component states Democratic commonwealths of really free and independent citizens to ignore the minor differences and join with us in organizing a great National party on this broad platform of natural rights and equal justice. We do not aim at securing any forced equality in the distribution of wealth. We do not propose that the state shall attempt to control production, conduct distribution or in any way interfere with the freedom of the individual to use his labor or his capital in any way that may seem proper to him, and that will not interfere with the equal rights of others, nor do we propose that the state shall take possession of land and either work it or rent it out.

"What we propose is not the disturbing of any man in his holding or title, but by abolishing all taxes on industry or its products to leave to the producer the free fruits of his exertion and by the taxation of land values, exclusive of improvements, to devote to common use those values which, arising not from the exertion of the individual, but from the growth of society, belong justly to the community as a whole. This increased taxation of land, not according to its area, but according to its value, must, while relieving the working farmer and small homestead owner of the undue burdens new imposed upon them, make it unprofitable to hold land for speculation and thus throw open abundant opportunities for the employment of labor and the building up of homes.

"While thus simplifying government by doing away with the horde of officials required by our present system of taxation and with its present incentive to fraud, and corruption, we would further prompt the commonwealth and further secure the equal rights of all by placing under public control such agencies as are in their nature monopolies. We would have our municipalities supply their inhabitants with water, light and heat. We would have the general government issue all money without the intervention of banks; we would add postal telegraph system and postal savings banks to the postal service, and would assume public control and ownership of these iron roads which have become the highways of modern commerce. While declaring the foregoing to be the fundamental principles and aims of the United Labor party, and, while conscious that no reform can give effectual and permanent relief to labor that does not involve the legal recognition of equal rights to natural opportunities, we nevertheless, as measures of relief from some of the evil effects of ignoring these rights, favor such legislation as may tend to reduce the hours of labor, to prevent the employment of children of tender years, to avoid the competition of convict labor with honest industry, to secure the sanitary inspection of tenements, factories and mines and to put an end to the abuse of conspiracy laws. We desire also to simplify the procedure of our courts and diminish expenses of legal proceedings that the poor may be placed on an equality with the rich, and the long delays which now result in scandalous miscarriages of justice may be prevented.

"And, since the ballot is the only means by which in our republic the recesses of political and social grievances is to be sought, we especially and emphatically declare for the adoption of what is known as the Australian system of voting, in order that the effectual secrecy of the ballot and the relief of candidates for office from the heavy expenses now imposed upon them, may prevent bribery and intimidation, do away with practical discrimination in favor of the rich and unscrupulous and lessen the pernicious influence of money in politics.

"In support of these aims, we solicit the co-operation of all citizens, who, sick of the degradation of politics, desire by constitutional methods to establish justice, to preserve liberty, to extend the spirit of fraternity and to elevate humanity."

H. H. Levenson and H. Quinlan presented a minority report. It took exception to the majority report, in that "it introduces into the platform matters of secondary importance upon which there is a wide difference of opinion among workers and thinkers, and, secondly, but chiefly, it omits certain cardinal principles second only in importance to land reform.

After an inconsequential discussion the majority report was adopted without a division.

Henry George and John R. O'Donnell were named for secretary of state. Mr.
George declined in favor of Mr. O'Donnell, but amid great enthusiasm Henry George was nominated by a unanimous rising vote.

As to Mary Irene Hoyt's Sanity.

EAST SAGINAW, Mich., Aug. 20.—In view of the fact that it is claimed by the late Jesse Hoyt's brother that his daughter Irene is insane, a movement is now being made to examine her. E. C. Carrigan, who is here with her, invited the mayor, the city attorney, the comptroller and several aldermen and newspaper representatives, etc., to meet Miss Hoyt and talk business matters. Afterward all signed a paper to the effect that they did not believe she was insane.

Wealthy Farmer Assassinated.

a wealthy farmer living ten miles from here, was shot twice by two masked robbers at his home last evening. The villains escaped but the whole country is aroused and searching of them. Mr. Gann was worth a quarter of a million, and the motive of the crime was undoubtedly robbery. He is shot through the lungs, and cannot recover.

the French Boys Mining company, located in King Solomon's Mountains, in San Juan county, Colorado, was sold at auction yesterday at the real estate exchange to B. L.
Coleman for $2,700. It is said that $500,000 has been sunk in the property by credulous investors.

commissioners in the report on the railroad collision at Hooksett in July, and that it re-

STEAMER BURNED AT SEA.

THE CITY OF MONTREAL DESTROYED IN MID-OCEAN.

Thirteen Souls Perish in the Flames or Find Watery Graves—The Ship Sailed From New York With a Cargo of Cotton on August 6—A List of the Passengers.

QUEENSTOWN, Aug. 20.—The steamship York City arrived here to-day, and brought the news of the burning of the City of Montreal. She had on board the crew and passengers of the ill-fated steamer, with the exception of thirteen, who perished. The York City was en route to London from Baltimore.

The tug Mt. Etna landed the survivors of the City of Montreal, brought in by the York City. The captain states that the fire broke out on the night of the 10th inst., just after the passengers had retired. The vessel was then in a latitude 43. The alarm was at once given, and the passengers rushed from their berths for the deck half dressed. The smoke from the fire invaded the passage ways and caused the utmost consternation among the passengers, many of whom were almost suffocated before gaining the open air.

The seven missing passengers and six of the crew put off from the vessel in one of the boats and nothing since has been heard of them. Some of the passengers state the fire broke out shortly after midnight on the morning of the 11th.

According to the statement of the survivors, the fire which consumed the vessel broke out among the cotton bales, of which there were 2,000 on board. The cotton was stowed in the after main hold. The crew was hastily summoned and nine hose were quickly put in working order and turned on the fire, when it was realized that the fire was a serious one. The course of the ship was changed about and shaped for Newfoundland, which was 400 miles away.
Shortly after this was done the flames from the burning cotton attacked the deck, and with great force burst through it midway between the after hatches. The force and heat of the flames were terrific, and it was soon seen that the ship was doomed. Word was passed that it was impossible to save the vessel, and all attention was given to lowering the boats and saving the passengers and ship's people. A momentary panic was caused when the captain decided to abandon the vessel, but all managed to embark in the boats, all of which, but one, containing six of the crew and seven passengers, were picked up by the York City. It is possible that this boat may be picked up, being in the line of many European steamers.

The Passenger List.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—The agents of the Inman line in this city stated to a United Press reporter that they had received no further information of the burning of the City of Montreal other than that conveyed in the press dispatches. The steamer was due at Queenstown Tuesday last, but, while her tardiness caused some uneasiness, the agents say they were not greatly alarmed, thinking some accident had occurred to her machinery. The City of Montreal had a miscellaneous cargo, including 2,000 bales of cotton, and the agents are of the opinion that the fire originated there. The vessel was commanded by Capt. Francis Land, and had a crew of eighty men all told. She carried no first-class passengers, but had twenty-three intermediate and fifty steerage passengers.

The company's list contains no mention of the places whence the passengers came.

The value of the City of Montreal is estimated by the company at between $40,000 and $50,000, which is fully insured in foreign companies.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 20.—The farmers' convention yesterday, after listening to a delegate from the Texas Farmers' alliance in favor of a third political party, passed a resolution thanking the speaker but declaring that in their opinion no third party was necessary.

Phrenologist Fowler Dead.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Professor O. S.
Fowler, the noted phrenologist, editor, author and lecturer, died at his residence near Sharon Station, Conn., yesterday, after a short illness.

ANOTHER MAN GUILTY.

The Head Engineer Blamed for the Great Disaster at Chatsworth.

PEORIA, Ill., Aug. 20.—The testimony so far before the railroad commissioners is important in placing the responsibility of a little higher than on the shoulders of a section boss at $40 a month. This was brought out in the cross-examination to which Sutherland, the engineer in charge of the first engine, was subjected. He testified he saw the fire when about three hundred feet from the bridge and supposed it to be to the south. He shut off steam, but gave no signal to McClintock, the engineer of the second engine, who had charge of the air brakes controlling the train. He sunk back in the cab almost paralyzed. The next thing he did was to turn on the steam. This had the effect, as the cars were all bunched up together, of breaking the coupling between his engine and that of McClintock and he passed over the burning bridge safely.

Why the company should have given Sutherland the front engine, he having no experience with passenger trains, over an old and experienced engineer like McClintock, is a mystery. That McClintock had no confidence in him was developed by the examination of the dead engineer's widow.
The substance of her evidence was that Mc-Clintock did not like to go out on the trip, not that he had any objections to double-headers, or to the make-up of the train, but owing to lack of confidence in Engineer Sutherland. Mrs. McClintock thought that if he had been on the front engineer the accident would never have occurred. He had been twenty-one years on the road, was very careful, and had a wonderful pair of eyes.

The Seventy-Ninth Death.

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—Another victim of the Chatsworth wreck died this morning at Fairbury. His name was Elton Waters, of Cattaraugus, N. Y. Until within a few days of the accident he was employed in a watch factory at Peoria. This makes the total number of verified deaths seventy-nine.

Stopping a Wedding Ceremony.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—George H. Hastings, aged nineteen, married Ella Joralemon secretly, and against his father's commands about six weeks ago, at Paterson, N. J. A few days ago the young couple, who have not been living together, decided to have another and a public marriage. Hastings' father heard of it, and last night, as the ceremony was about to be performed at the house of the bride's father, a detective employed at the instance of the elder Hastings by a furniture dealer, arrested the youth on a charge of obtaining furniture under false pretenses. The young woman fainted, and Hastings was removed to jail.

Tragic Termination of a Happy Day.

SHOALS, Ind., Aug. 20.—The soldiers reunion at French Lick Springs yesterday, culminated in a frightful accident which cost the life of a handsome young lady.
George Hawkins and Miss Lenora Peck had spent the day at the springs and were driving home in a carriage in the evening. They attempted to pass a wagon, and the two vehicles locked wheels, throwing the occupants of the carriage to the ground with terrible force and overturning the vehicle upon them. The lady received fatal injuries and lived in great agony for only an hour. Hawkins is in a critical condition.

Missionary Thrown Into Prison.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—News has been received by the American board in this city, of the arrest and imprisonment in the Caroline Islands, of the Rev. Edward Doane, the veteran missionary, on a charge of inciting the natives to disobey the governor. Although Mr. Doane denied the accusation the governor preferred to believe the unscrupulous traders who brought the charge, and the missionary was thrown into prison. The Spanish government will be asked by the department of state to closely investigate the case.

Prominent Attorney Goes Wrong.

ST. CLOUD, Minn., Aug. 20.—A rumor is current here that E. H. Morse, a prominent young attorney, agent of the Minnesota Loan and Trust company and president of the E. H. Morse Mortgage Loan company, of this city, has decamped. He left here about three weeks ago. Parties well informed on his affairs state that his shortage will foot up from $12,000 to $15,000. This created a great sensation, and much sympathy is expressed for his family, who are visiting in Canada. His short comings are attributed to extravagance.

CONCORD, N. H., Aug. 20.—Senator Blair received something of a surprise to-day. He introduced into the house of representatives a resolution indorsing his national educational bill, and instructing the New Hampshire delegation in congress to support it.
This resolution was indefinitely tabled.

Ran Away and Killed Their Keepers.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 20.—Two big passenger engines ran away within a yard of the Pennsylvania Railroad company last night, and the engineers, named Morris Thompson, and Joseph Kelly, received fatal injuries. The locomotives were totally destroyed.

Dead at the Age of 103.

WINCHESTER, O., Aug. 20.—Mary Freese, who has been an inmate of the infirmary for about nine years, died suddenly at that institution last night. She was 102 years of age, and formerly resided in Meigs township, this county.

Texas Election Outrages.

AUSTIN, Aug. 20.—In the United States court Wednesday, in the Washington county election cases, seventeen witnesses testified that ballot-boxes were destroyed by armed masked men.

A Dam Washes Away.

EAST BROOKFIELD, Mass., Aug. 20.—One hundred feet of the dam at Forbes' Woolen mill was washed away this morning. A number of houses were also badly damaged by the high water.

Died of His Injuries.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 20.—Morris Thompson, one of the injured engineers of last night's collision, died to-day.

The Bard Will Die.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—The famous racer, The Bard, is rapidly growing weaker, and will undoubtedly die.

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION.
THE DAILY BULLETIN will be delivered to any part of the city at 6 cents a week, or one year for $3.
THE DAILY BULLETIN to any postoffice in the United States, postage prepaid, at twenty-five cents per month or three dollars per year.
SATURDAY EVE., AUGUST 20, 1887.

The Fleming County attorneys declined to go to Morehead and defend Taylor Young and Allie Young.

Ex-Governor Blackburn is reported gradually growing weaker. His death may occur at any moment.

It is believed Governor Knott will engage in the practice of law at Louisville, as soon as his term of office expires.

WILLIS L. RINGO will be a candidate for Clerk of the House of Representatives in the next Legislature. He has filled the position of assistant clerk for several sessions.

In opposition to the wishes of General Buckner, extensive preparations are being perfected for the inaugural ceremonies on the 30th of this month. The General is not fond of such "foolishness."

COLONEL H. M. MCCARTY, present Assistant Secretary of State, is now negotiating for and will probably purchase the Jessamine Journal at Nicholasville for himself and sons to publish and edit.

The Government saves over $200,000 in interest by the purchase of $2,500,000 of four-and-a-half per cent. bonds. Wouldn't it be a good idea to use that big surplus in buying up all the bonds?

The good people of Fleming County didn't relish the idea of going over to Morehead as jurors. The appearance of the Rowan County Sheriff at Flemingsburg caused a general stampede among the citizens of that place.

INDICATIONS point to a compromise of the troubles down in Taylor County over the railroad taxes. The holders of the bonds have probably concluded that a little of their money is better than none at all. And the people were not ready to have their county gobbled up by the holders of these bonds.

The mixed school question is agitating the people at Ripley and Georgetown. At Ripley some of the colored folks want to force their way into the white schools—as they have a right to do now in Ohio—but at Georgetown a petition is in circulation among the colored people praying for a separate school.

FLEMING is a greater sufferer from the drought than any of her immediate neighbors. The corn in about half of the county has been much injured, and the crop of tobacco will be cut down to one-half of average expectations. There has been fairly seasonable weather in various parts of the county, but all have suffered for a general rain.—Fleming County Democrat.

Says the Fleming County Democrat: "The fact that Mr. Taylor Young came into the county while the Sheriff was here summoning a jury to try him and his son, and that the jury was largely selected in the neighborhood where Mr. Young formerly lived, has been the subject of much comment by people in this county. But we do not want the Rowan County racket started among us. It is not our fight."

Z. T. Young was in Fleming last week, but he denies that he was there for the purpose of assisting the Sheriff in selecting a jury to try his boys. It may be true that he was not intermeddling with the Sheriff, but what in the name of all the world did he want in Fleming at this time? He will never be able to remove the suspicion that his visit to Fleming was connected with the selection of the jury.—Carlisle Mercury.

THE BULLETIN heartily endorses the following from the Frankfort Argus: "The candidate for Assistant Clerk of the next House is Mr. Green R. Keller, of Nicholas County. He was Clerk of the last House, and third Clerk of the House of 1883-84. Previously he represented Bourbon County in the Legislature, and was one of the most laborious members of the body. In all the positions of trust reposed in him he has given entire satisfaction. His knowledge of legislative matters, and the general routine of business is thorough, and the position of Assistant Clerk could not go to a worthier person than Green R. Keller, of Nicholas County."

Young men or middle-aged ones suffering from nervous debility and kindred weakness should send 10 cents in stamps for illustrated book suggesting sure means of cure. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main street, Buffalo, N. Y.

SUCCESS ASSURED.

The Attendance at the Young Men's Kentucky Fair Unprecedented.

Large Crowd, Fine Weather and a Splendid Exhibition the Features of the Third Day.

The success of the third annual fair of the Young Men's Kentucky Fair Company is already assured. The attendance this year has been unprecedented. The first fair held by the company two years ago was a success. The meeting last year surpassed the first one, and now the one this year will "beat all previous records." Unquestionably the Young Men's Kentucky Fair is becoming more popular each succeeding year. It has already taken rank with the leading fairs in the Ohio valley.

The weather yesterday was splendid fair weather. A pleasant breeze from the north cooled the warm rays of the sun, and added much to the comfort of the visitors. The crowd in attendance—much larger than on the second day—comfortably filled the spacious amphitheatre. The greater part of the visitors were from Maysville and Mason County, but Ripley, Augusta, Brooksville, Flemingsburg, Mt. Olivet, Carlisle, Millersburg, Vanceburg, Manchester and other towns and villages of the surrounding country were all well represented in the vast throng. The order was excellent, and everybody came away seemingly delighted with the pleasures and enjoyments of the day.

The exhibition in the arena was one of the best ever seen on the grounds. Messrs. C. C. Hopper, W. L. Samuels and Elzie Clift were directors for the day. Following is a list of premiums awarded: Harness mare, 4 years old and over, W. C. Threlkeld, Morlug View, Ky., $20.
Harness mare, 3 years old and under 4, W. L. Bramlette, Carlisle, $15.
Harness mare, two years old and under 3, J. T. Wilson, Sharpburg, $10.
Harness mare, 1 year old and under 2, J. W. Fitzgerald, Maysville, $10.
Harness mare, under 1 year, J. B. Wilson, Bath County, $8.
Harness mare, any age, W. L. Bramlette, Carlisle, $15.
Harness horse, mare or gelding, N. H. Rowland, Lexington, $35.
Roadster stallion, 4 years old and over, John T. Wilson, Sharpburg, $15.
Roadster stallion, 3 years old and under 4, R. P. Pepper, Frankfort, $10.
Roadster stallion, 2 years old and under 3, Sam. White, Mason County, $10.

Saddle gelding 3 years old and under 4, Dick Davis, Lewisburg, Ky., $12.00 Saddle gelding 2 years old and under 3, Thelma Owens, Mason County, Ky., $10.00.
Saddle horse, mare or gelding, J. C. Caldwell, Carlisle, Ky., $13.00 Park horse, mare or gelding, N. H. Rowland, Lexington, Ky., $20.00.
Stallion and three colts, J. T. Wilson, Sharpburg, Ky., $15.00.
Mare and two colts, J. T. Wilson, Sharpburg, Ky., $15.00.
Mare and suckling colt, Thomas Thorn, Millersburg, Ky., $10.00.
Model horse, mare or gelding, twelve entries. N. H. Rowland, Lexington, Ky., $15.00
The "baby show" took place shortly after two o'clock. There were four entries: Edith Blair Means, Edward Schatzmann, Anna Edna Broadt and Francis Toile. The premium was for "handsomest white baby, any sex, under eighteen months old." The first premium—$10.00—was awarded to Edith Blair Means, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Means, of this city; second premium—$5.00—to Edward Schatzmann, son of Mrs. Lou Schatzman, also of this city.

There were two races on the programme—the 3:00 pace, and the three-year-old trot. Of the five entries in the pacing race, Bud Dobie sold as favorite with Wickopee second choice. The boys dropped their money on Dobie, however, as Cognac, a brown stallion owned by Colonel Pepper, of Frankfort, had things his own way from the start, and won three straight heats. Cognac's best heat—2:22½—was remarkably fast time for the class. He could have done much better, too, had he had some one to keep him company.

"The leprosy distilment, whose effect holds such an enemy with blood of man, That, swift as quicksilver, it courses through The natural gates and alleys of the body, and can cause the skin to become "barked about, most loathsome, with vile and loathsome crust." Such are the effects of diseased and morbid bile, the only antidote for which is to cleanse and regulate the liver—an office admirably performed by Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery."

Among the delegation from Brooksville this week at the fair, are Robert Staton, of the Bracken Democrat, and Messrs. James W. Staton, Silas Bradford, J. H. Coons, J. A. McCane, J. B. Clark, Jr., H. H. Poage, B. F. McAtee, Gabe Zeltz, B. F. Metcalfe, C. A. Staton, Geo. Palmer, L. S. Day and Sylvester Owens.

The Hon. Jewell Ellis is still doing good work for the soldier boys. He seems to have better success with pensions than anybody else.

The moonlight fete did not materialize Wednesday night at Carlisle. Too much dampness. The same managers will give one here, probably, next week.

Judge Loudon, of Georgetown, Lawyer Bambach, of Ripley, and Rev. Rice, of Cincinnati, are among the list of Aberdeen's prominent visitors this week.

"Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned," is old. It would take about three sheets to compare with some of their tongues, and then if the jaws held out, the tongue would win.

We must confess that Jim Hall has the finest lot of chickens we ever saw. Jim is a raiser of poultry in an entire success. N. N., which means "No Blarney," when we say that we saw the chickens in the day time and Jim was alone, cause we can't tell a chicken from a turkey after night.

What is the matter with Aberdeen? California, three miles back, is beginning to assume city airs. Two base ball matches, an ice cream supper, to be topped off with a moonlight fete, all to take place this afternoon and evening. And Aberdeen can't scare up one moonlight fete, let alone the balance. Well, you naturally expect more of cities than small villages, anyway.

"All is not gold that glitters" by any means, and sailors should not get the blame for all drunkenness from the looks of things. Stone pelters and buckets play a prominent part, especially about this season of the year. It is a common occurrence to see buckets filled with the extract of liver, or boot-tops, as the case might be, wending their way to some silent retreat and then the boys cluster around, but, of course, they only snail.

Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" perfectly and permanently cures those diseases peculiar to females. The headache and dragging-down sensations all disappear under the strengthening effects of this great restorative. By druggists.

The engineers of the O. and N. W. Railroad are now engaged in surveying a route between Georgetown and Ripley. The last route takes Higginsport in the way. It is comparatively an easy line to traverse, and a flourishing point for trade and passengers is secured. It is a little longer, but that makes but little difference when the advantages of the road are considered. In a short time the engineers will complete the survey and choice will be determined upon. The road has now fallen into hands that are both willing and able to complete any enterprise they may undertake.—Georgetown Times.

The railroad contractors opposite Ripley are pushing the work with all their might.

The West Union Defender says the corn crop in Adams county will not average five bushels to the acre.

HECHINGER was right in advertising that this would be the fair. It is. Trade at the Oddfellows' Hall Clothing House was largely in excess of last year's fair week, and the youngsters can put down the Oddfellows' Hall Clothiers for a cool hundred next year.

At Flemingsburg, information has just been received of a fatal accident at Sunset, that county, in which John B. Storey, the owner of a steam traction engine, was struck by a piece of the bursting fly-wheel, producing concussion of the brain, which will cause his death. No other employees of the outfit were injured.

A SPECIAL from Winchester, Adams County, Ohio, says that the wheat is now all threshed and there will be only a half crop in the entire county. Corn promises no better, while potatoes will hardly be one-fourth a crop. Fruit is a total failure. Vegetables are dried and withered, and it is safe to say that there will not be 5,000 pounds of tobacco raised in the county. The outlook in Adams County for the coming winter, to say the least, is discouraging, and foretells hard times and suffering to many.

FOR VISITORS
TO THE

Young • Men's

Great • Kentucky • Fair.

HECHINGER'S!

It is a familiar sounding name to most everybody, hence we need no further introduction to the visitors to our Young Men's Fair. We will simply say that, as usual, we desire all our visitors to make our storerooms headquarters. We will take the best of care of you. In anticipation of this year's Fair being the Kentucky Fair par excellence, we have thoroughly renovated, decorated and beautified our rooms to that extent that we can justly claim that we have the most elegant and best appointed Clothing establishment in the State. Though somewhat early for the coming season, we are already prepared to show our friends a full and complete stock of Fall Goods. We have no space to enumerate; we will only say this: we believe no house in the State shows as complete a stock of Tailor-made Clothing and Merchant Tailoring Goods as we do! Our prices, considering the class of goods we sell, will be found more than satisfactory. Gentlemen in need of Shirts, Underwear, Collars, Cuffs, Hose, Ties, &c., will find just what they want in our house. During the week our Mr. DAVE HECHINGER will be found at the helm, and will be glad to welcome all of his friends at the ODDFELLOWS' HALL CLOTHING STORE. Respectfully, Hechinger & Co.

WHITE CAPS IN INDIANA.

THE LAWLESSNESS IN THE SOUTH-WESTERN PART OF THE STATE.

Orange, Dubois and Crawford Counties Terrorized by the Outlaws—Citizens Appealing to the Governor for Protection—Some of Their Recent Acts.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 20.—Citizens in the southeastern part of Indiana are again appealing to the governor for protection from the White Caps or regulators. Orange, Dubois and Crawford counties are terrorized by the band, which, upon the pretense of punishing violators of the law, goes on plundering and marauding trips nearly every night. So general is the fear of the gang that citizens dare not express themselves regarding the operations of the outlaws.

A gentleman who came to Indianapolis today to beg the governor to take some steps toward breaking up the band, said his life would be in danger if it was known that he had made complaint against the regulators. On his way out of Orange county he met a farmer who had been prominent in the county, who was hurrying away from the infested district with his family and all his portable possessions, impelled by the White Caps, who had made an assault on him and had given him fair warning that he must be out of range before a certain date. He had been obliged to leave his farm, and this he was trying to sell through another. The premises had been plundered by the outlaws.

The county officers are afraid to prosecute and witnesses are unwilling to testify, because they are not protected. "I know of one case," said the man who complained to the governor, "when the White Caps assaulted a respectable farmer at midnight. They were beating him unmercifully, when his daughter ran for the house, and having seized a knife, began to fight the guard who had been left with the horses. She succeeded in cutting loose several of the hinders, and in doing so cut a gash in one of the animals' breast. The regulators took after their horses, and the next day the wounded horse could be tracked to the barn of one of the most prominent citizens in the township. As the gang operate in disguise it is difficult to recognize them. It would have been folly to have complained against the perpetrators. The leader was evidently the owner of the wounded horse, and a man prominent in politics, a bigger man than the sheriff, and against whom no county officer would dare raise a hand."

Wetherill's house was blown away, and his wife and two children buried in the debris, and all more or less injured.
